

Members of the FCC:

Please reject petition 04-160 that seeks to limit the ability of satellite radio broadcasters to provide local content such as traffic and weather. If new technologies, such as satellite radio, can provide American consumers with superior products and services, they should be encouraged, not hampered.

Sincerley,
Jeffrey Albert